

Percentage	I can ...	Prove it!
	Apply the religious beliefs to different ethical situations to explain how a religious believer would act according to the religious beliefs. Evaluate, using religious beliefs, whether you think humans are inherently bad or good. Include examples of all keywords and expand on basic definitions to show you can apply the meaning of the term	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Someone has stolen something from a small shop. Only you know that they have done it. Use Christian and Buddhist beliefs to explain how you should morally act. 2) You are out on a school trip and you break something. No one sees it is you and you could get away with it. Use Christian and Buddhist beliefs to explain how you should morally act. 3) 'Humans are born bad or good'. Do you agree? Explain your answer using religious beliefs
	Analyse the religious beliefs to compare and contrast what two different religions think about morality and how they make a moral decision Present your ideas in a logical way backed up by evidence from religious sources/beliefs Use religious language and technical terms accurately	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Explain similarities and differences between how Buddhists and Christians make a moral decision 2) Are Buddhist moral beliefs morally absolute or morally relative? Explain your answer 3) Are Christian moral beliefs morally absolute or morally relative? Explain your answer 4)

Percentage	I can ...	Prove it!
 60%	Explain in detail, how two religions would make a moral decision Explain whether you think human beings are good or bad and why that is	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Explain how the 10 commandments, bible and two great laws help Christians to make a moral decision 2) Explain how the eightfold path and five precepts help Buddhists to make a moral decision 3) Explain what original sin is and if you agree that humans are born bad
 48%	Briefly explain what a religion thinks about morality and how to make moral decisions Explain the difference between key terms Explain briefly how you would make a moral decision Explain how religious people make a moral decision	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Explain two ways a religious person would make a moral decision 2) One way Buddhists would make a moral decision is by... 3) What is the difference between moral absolutism and moral relativism? 4) Explain how you personally would make a moral decision? 5) One way a Christian would make a moral decision is by...

Percentage	I can ...	Prove it!
	Define key terms Identify religious beliefs about morality Identify how religious people make moral decisions	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) What is the definition of karma? 2) Give two of the eight fold path? 3) Give three of the 10 commandments 4) Give three actions that would be considered morally wrong 5) List as many sources of authority as you can that religious people use to make moral decisions 6) Give three ways you would make a moral decision

Key Words:

- Morality
- Authority
- Sin
- Karma
- Noblefold path
- Justice
- Enlightenment
- Moral absolutism
- Moral relativism

