8 	Write two paragraphs. Make explain how both sources are useful to the enquiry in the question. Explain how the content of the source is useful. Back this up with a quote/detail and your own knowledge. Explain how the purpose is useful because of what it reveals about methods, tactics, feelings, emotions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1st paragraph: Explain what source A is useful for. Source B is useful for an enquiry into violent crime because it suggests that gangs of criminals violently robbed people. I know this because it says the 'man attacked me a stick' and 'I was then surrounded by 6 other attackers'. This does not surprise me because I know that there were many criminal gangs in Whitechapel, for example 'The Lurkers'. The purpose of the source was to record evidence of crime for the court records. This is useful because it reveals the level of violence and the numbers of criminals involved in gangs attacking people in Whitechapel. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 2nd paragraph: Explain what source B is useful for. Source B is useful for an enquiry into violent crime because it suggests that a women has been murdered. I know this it says the drawing is about the 'murder of Harriett Lane by her lover, who buried her body under the floorboards'. This does not surprise me because I know that there were many violent murders in Whitechapel such as those committed by Jack the Ripper in 1888 The purpose of the source was to grab people's attention so they would buy a copy of the Penny Illustrated Paper.. This is useful because it reveals how newspapers sensationalised violent crimes in order to sell papers. It also reveals that Jack the Ripper was not the only violent murderer during this period.	1. Study Sources A and B. How useful are Sources A and B for an enquiry into violent crime in the Whitechapel area? Explain your answer, using Sources A and B and your knowledge of the historical context.  Source A: A description of a violent theft, given in evidence at a trial at the Old Bailey, 1888. The victim, John Shumaker, is giving evidence against James Hunt, who is accused of attacking him. John Shumaker: At 11pm, I was in Cambridge Road, Whitechapel, and the accused ran out and snatched my watch chain from my waistcoat pocket. I ran after him and caught him but then another man attacked me with a stick and struck me four times on my head. I let Mr Hunt go, and he hit me with the stick, which cut my nose open. He also hit me on the arm. I was then surrounded by six other attackers and I shouted for help. The accused knocked me down again and took money from my trouser pocket.   Source B: From the Penny Illustrated Paper, 1874. The drawing is about the murder of Harriett Lane by her lover, Henry Wainwright. He was a businessman who owned a workshop and warehouse in Whitechapel Road. He buried Harriett Lane's body under the floorboards of his workshop.
